The Lord fent Paul many errands, for the fpreading ef his gnfpel, where he found lions in his way: a promise was made to,his people of the holy land, andy et "many nations in the way sighting against, and ready tokill them who had the promife, or to keep them from pofsefsing that good land which the Lord their God had given' them. I know ye have most to do with fubmission of fpirit; "but I perfuade myfelf, ye have learned, in every condition wherein ye are east, therein to be content, and to fay, Good itthe will os the Lord, let it be done. I believe, the Lord tackleth his fhip often to fetch the wind, and that he purpofeth to bring mercy out of your fufferings and silence, which, I know from mins own experience, is grievous to you: feting he knoweth our willing mind to ferve him, our wages and stipend is running to the fore wilh our God; even as fome sick foldiers get their pay, when they are bed-fast, and not able to go to the sield with others. Though Israel be not gathered yet sliall lthe glorious in ike eyes is the Lord, and my God Jhall' he my strength, Ifa. xlix. j. and we are to believe it fhall be thus, ere all the play be played, Jer. li. 25:. The violence done to me and my fteftii ke upon Babylon, and the grea...
