Conclusion To The Epic Five Part Series Trust Me Not

Erik is livid to find out that Mika has been hiding her immigration status for all of this time. He confronts her and says that it's jeopardizing his court case and he doesn't even know how to deal with her, and leaves. Mika is heartbroken, she hates her new job and she misses Erik.

Erik's court date arrives and even though it looks a little dicey, all of the money owed is actually the company's debt, and since Erik liquidated the company it worked out. Mika shows up in the back of the courtroom and when all of the hullabaloo dies down, Erik sees her.

Now, Erik must decide what kind of person he wants to be for the rest of his life. He has to decide if he wants to be a better person with Mika or if he is still under his Dad's shadow.
