When considering the carry of a handgun, it's easy to be overwhelmed by the choices. Should I carry a gun? How can I carry it so it's available if needed, but avoid telegraphing its presence? How would the gun be used against multiple attackers or in close quarters? Defensive Handgunning was written by an experienced police instructor. Having studied the cross-section of available methodologies, Glenn Rehberg set out to combine the most effective techniques into a comprehensive system with no inherent contradictions and few non-standard responses. This, in itself, is no small accomplishment-users can employ simple, effective, and universal techniques when they encounter a dangerous situation. The additional information on mindset, mental rehearsal, and post-shooting actions adds further value. Whether you are a novice considering whether a handgun is right for you, or an experienced handgun shooter looking for new techniques, Defensive Handgunning contains information for all.
