The hunger is back but Ana is tired and all she wants is to sleep.

Coming across a roadside motel, she works out a deal with the night manager for a room for the night.

After turning on the TV and getting under the covers, sleep comes quick.

She awakens when two intruders enter her room, but does not react like a scared, little princess.

Ana is never the prey.

Instantly she knows what they want but sadly the intruders don't know what the hunger demands from them.

Ana welcomes them, knowing she's going to have some fun with her trusty box-cutter.
