The Husband Games (Misfit Brides of Bliss) (Volume 1) Jamie Farrell

After Natalie Castellano's marriage imploded on the field of the Husband Games in Bliss, Illinois, the most married-est town on earth, the last job she expected to inherit was planning the fiftieth anniversary of her hometown's unique Games. But with her mother's unexpected passing, that's exactly what Natalie's doing. And the position demands that she play nice with CJ Blue, the man who ultimately caused Natalie's marital demise. Winning Bliss's Husband Games and being crowned Husband of the Year was the brightest spot in CJ's short marriage. Since his wife's untimely death, he's taken himself around the world, hiding from his grief. But now, family obligations have him trapped in Bliss, where he's been invited to participate in the Games and humiliate himself in the name of closure. The whole town wants him to play. The whole town, except one. And he can't decide what bothers him more—that Natalie doesn't think he belongs in the Games, or that she's right. These two would make great enemies. But all games aside, the more they find themselves in close quarters, the harder it is to deny their mutual attraction. She's battled Bliss's bridal brigade, and he's jumped out of airplanes and soared over waterfalls, but now they're both facing the biggest risk of all: taking another chance on love.
