After the explosion at PEACHES' house, BLAZE was forced to send her and BLAKE off in order to keep them safe. In doing so, the distance caused a split in their relationship. However, Peaches couldn't deny the fact that she loved and missed Blaze like crazy and the negative affect it was having on Blake.

Still leery from the drama surrounding her miscarriage and Blaze being unaware of who was behind the attack, Peaches was still on edge about being in a relationship with him.

But what happens when too much time and distance between lovers leave room for another to possibly step in?

Will she lose sight on the danger lurking in the shadows and come to her senses in order to get her man back? Or will the bullets from an enemies' gun take him before she get the chance to confess what she truly feels?
