Can the way you start a relationship determine its outcome? Skyy Benson was always a conservative woman, until her best friend challenged her to be different for once. She meets Darezz, and she decides to let all her inhibitions go, but doing so takes her on a whirlwind of scheming, underhanded drama that she never expected to be a part of. Did she bite off more than she can chew? Darezz Anderson had it all; a good job, a great lifestyle and a woman who had his back. Then, one day, he decided it's all too much and throws it all away for something more simple and fulfilling for him. Now he's doing what he loves and comes across Skyy, who shows him what he had been missing in his life, but when someone from his past comes back, she will stop at nothing to get him back. Now Darezz has to make sure Skyy sees that he is worth it. He desperately wants Skyy to believe that just because they started one way, doesn't mean they can't end a better way. Let Me Love You takes you on a journey of living versus existing through sex, lies, and downright drama.
