Cry and You Cry Alone: The Girl Who Vowed She'd Never Forget Rosalinda V. Hutton

A moving memoir about the horror and trauma of abuse at a Catholic children's home in 1960s England

After an idyllic early childhood in Surrey, Linda's life descended into poverty and chaos when her parents' marriage crumbled and her unstable mother's sanity declined. She experienced a brief period of comfort in a caring foster home before being plunged into the dark, terrifying world of a 1960s institution. St Anne's Convent, Orpington, was a Catholic children's home run by the infamous Sisters of Mercy and a former monk who inflicted bizarre and barbaric beliefs and practices on the children in his care, and this is the achingly honest story of a survivor of shocking child abuse that took place in the heart of an English suburb.
