Ghosts of Fire Maureen Smith

Rachel Calloway is devastated when her father's popular restaurant is torched by an arsonist. Just when she thinks the nightmare can't get any worse, her father is charged with the crime. Rachel will do anything to prove his innocence, but her loyalty is tested to the limits when she crosses paths with Nicholas Hunter, the ruthless prosecutor bent on sending her father to prison...

Nick Hunter is thirsty for justice, a man made cynical by the horrors he experienced in childhood. He shows mercy to no one...until he encounters Rachel Calloway, the first woman ever to make him question his convictions. From the moment they meet, a forbidden attraction sizzles between them that neither can ignore.

As danger lurks in the shadows, Rachel soon finds herself in the biggest fight for her heart...and her life.

Ghosts of Fire is a 97,000 word romantic suspense novel that was originally published in 2002.
