Evergreen* is a clean & sweet Western Historical Romance that takes place in the late 1800s.

Violet, a young Civil War widow, wishes to marry again and start a family.

Jacob, a lonely single cowboy, longs for a wife to share his beautiful mountain-valley homestead in the Colorado Territory.

Violet responds to Jacob's mail-order bride ad, and eventually agrees to meet him at the Denver train station. But when she gets to know Jacob better, she realizes he isn't the man she thought he was.

And then there's Dale, the neighbor, who is everything Jacob isn't.

Adventures and romance await Violet in the Wild West, but will her new-found love be short-lived or everlasting?

Evergreen captures the spirit of the American West, of life as a pioneer on the untamed frontier, and the undeniable power of true love.

This book can be read as a stand-alone story without a cliffhanger.

Themes: Western romance, inspirational romance, clean & wholesome romance, historical romance, western & frontier christian romance, Victorian historical romance, happily ever after
