Stolen by the Highlander tells the story of Freya, a young Scottish woman who was married to her husband, Angus at the tender age of fourteen. Angus treats Freya with no more respect than he would give the dirt on his shoe, but faithful bride Freya continues to stand by him. When a group of Scottish Highlanders attack her village however, and Freya is left to fend for herself she soon re-evaluates what devotion means. Carried off in to the mountains by tall handsome Highlander, Lorne, Freya quickly gets her eyes opened to what life can be like without the bondage of her marriage to Angus.
