My Friend the Fan

My Friend the Fan Eric M. Brown

When my daughter was born, within several weeks she was staring at the ceiling fans around the house. Constantly mesmerized, she made me wonder about her little view of the world she had just entered and inspired me to write about this. As I was working on the book, other moms and dads recounted their baby's infatuation with ceiling fans. It is a simple book, but the words and images capture that wonder and amazement of the initial months after the birth of a child. And it was a family effort as my wife's dad and my niece and nephew are the illustrators. I wrote it from an infant's point of view (my best estimation of course) and I'm sure you'll enjoy reading this book to your child as he or she stares towards that whirling fixture.
