Sam Dixon fell in love with Ellie Gunderson before he even met her. The letters she wrote while he was serving in World War II, combined with what her brother said about her, captured his heart. He hoped she would return his feelings once the war was over and he finished school, but she didn't. When Ellie realized who the new doctor at St. Mary's was, she was embarrassed and annoyed. Why would Sam choose to move to Rochester when he knew she was working there and knew how she felt. The problem: Ellie didn't know how she felt.
