Insufficient Funds: One women's journey out of debt and into financial freedom Lauren Greutman

Tired, hopeless, stressed, and broke...with no way out. Does that sound familiar? This is where Lauren was at the age of 25. Over $40,000 in debt with no way out - or so she thought. Follow Lauren on her journey beginning with the accusation of seemingly unmanageable credit card debt, showing real life struggles and the ups and downs of becoming debt free. With so many 'how-to' books on the market, women can feel overwhelmed by information and start to feel like there is no hope for them. Lauren wants to share with you her inspiring (and sometimes embarrassing) story, to show busy women that you can have a positive impact on your finances in a huge way. All while not overwhelming you with mounds of extra tasks to add to your already busy life. Come and follow her journey and know that you can contribute significantly to your household finances. Even if you have a sink full of dirty dishes and a house full of unmade beds - you CAN make a differences!
