The Language of Flowers: Large Print Edition Diffenbah Vanessa

Victoria Jones has aged out of foster care and into circumstances so dire she must sleep in a park. but her remarkable way with flowers catches the eye of a shop owner who takes pity on the girl and gives her a job. Victoria's understanding of the language of flowers - hawthorn for hope, honeysuckle for devotion - and her ability to discern people's needs and find blossoms that can help them soon brings her a clientele of her own. If only Victoria could make things right for herself... This Large Print Book carries the Seal of Approval of N A V H.
