When husband and wife become father and mother, the miracle of life accelerates their hopes. Will little Tommy one day be a professional athlete? Will Suzy get an academic scholarship? Dreams of the future are fun--until they're shattered by reality. Tommy was born severely handicapped. Suzy ran away from home and has not been heard from for months. The bitter pain of disappointment often tears a marriage and family apart. There are no easy ways out. You'd have to go through it to really understand. Norma and Joyce Wright have. And God's incredible strength held them together in the face of overwhelming challenges and made them even stronger. Their difficult experiences with Matthew, who was born mentally disabled, and Sheryl, who took a rebellious direction for several years, have given them a special ability to provide encouragement and hope for every parent dealing with the death of a dream for his or her child. After helping thousands of struggling relationships, Norm and Joyce Wright now share the lessons they've learned as both parents and professionals in I'LL LOVE YOU FOREVER. You'll take a touching, transparent look at the victories they won through unconditional love--and discover how you can do the same.
