The Proposition: A Gay College Romance Jack Woolf

Mark is a handsome college man with women falling at his feet. But there's a new student on campus. Joseph has bright blue eyes and plenty of secrets to hide.

Mark's curiosity is aroused when Joseph comes to him with a strange proposition that could change his life forever. Mark has always been straight, but now he is confronted with new and confusing feelings. He can't get Joseph out of his mind.

At a secluded spot on campus, their mutual attraction reaches its boiling point. Mark doesn't want to give in to his secret desire, but it's so hard when Joseph is so close, and his one true love is within his reach.
