Natalie's Consequences (Faith and Family) (Volume 3) Linda Robinson

Natalie Hudson—daughter of doting parents, college student preparing for a career in veterinary medicine, and fiancée of the perfect friend and companion—couldn't be happier. Until her idyllic world is shaken by unexpected news and circumstances. Nicholas, her betrothed, asks to postpone their wedding for reasons she can't understand. Is Natalie being selfish if she gives Nicholas the boot, abandons the Christian Triple C group, and spends time with a new male friend who desires more than friendship? Natalie soon discovers her new life is nothing like she has always dreamed it would be. The angst and trials of her teen years seem trivial compared to the struggles of adulthood with its many choices, commitments, and consequences. Will the man Natalie once called the love of her life become her husband and father her children? Or is the term soul mate a fantasy too? Join Natalie as she faces the challenges and life-altering events of an adult in a real world rife with stormy clouds and turbulent temptations.
