The Stain Harry Kraus

A high-tech researcher determined to disprove Christianity. A caring doctor in a state of panic. A young woman deceived and dying. They all bear the wounds of darkness. At what cost comes the cure?

The newspapers in and around town are shouting the question: Is he a hero, a murderer, or a fool?

Dr. Seth Berringer is wondering himself. In desperation he tried to take things into his own hands--and now those hands are stained with blood.

He's caught in a cover-up with worldwide scientific and spiritual implications. And only the truth can set him free.

Fiction as real as the dark impulses of the human heart

"The Stain is as current as today's headlines, yet as eternal as God's truths. Surgeon Harry Kraus has combined his medical expertise with a gripping tale of modern medical mayhem that will keep you up tonight!" --Angela Elwell Hunt, Best-selling author
