World War IV: Empires - Book 2 James Hunt

Free nations are birthed through democracy, laws, and a unified public. These citizens elect their leaders, own their lands, and speak their mind free of the fear that those rights will be infringed. Knowledge, education, diversity, and opposing viewpoints are welcomed to help strengthen resolve. These are free nations, governed by free people. But Empires are not built on these foundations. Empires are forged by fear and war. The Mars family is about to be coerced into a lesson of supremacy.
