From an acclaimed young filmmaker, the screenplay of a riveting film about a young Orthodox Jewish woman's struggle to find herself. Set in the world of New York's diamond trade, A Price Above Rubies employs a poetic style to illuminate the story of Sonia, a young Hasidic wife, played by Renee Zellweger, who is trying to take control of her life. Boaz Yakin brings to A Price Above Rubies the same ability he showed in his earlier film Fresh -- the rare gift of being able to pull audiences into intimate contact with enclosed communities and then reveal the humanity we art share.
