They say nothing bad ever happens in quaint Askergan County. To Cody Lawrence it sounds like the perfect place for a family winter getaway. But everything 'they' say about Askergan is wrong... dead wrong.

For the first time on record, a blizzard is blowing over Askergan--a storm so powerful that it knocks out a local power line, trapping his family inside with no heat and no electricity.

Cody believes all he has to do is to protect his wife and daughters from frostbite. But when he hears a haunting voice in the blizzard urging him into the storm, he realizes that the stakes are much greater than frozen fingers and toes. Something in the driving snow won't be content until Cody heeds its call and delivers his entire family, presenting the gift of their smooth, supple skin...
