The Ring Around The Moon Phillip Moussakhani

The Ring Around The Moon is a collection of writing that spans almost 20 years. The title for this book is from the opening and closing poems, which read more like a bedtime story. This story actually bookends a collection of thoughts in rhyme. It is a journey through adolescence, finding love and purpose in the world, a deep love for God and for those who have helped shape his life. Heartfelt and real, this book will give you a glimpse of who the writer is and the journeys he has taken.
