Treasure Island (Classics for Young Adults) Robert Louis Stevenson

TREASURE ISLAND, the delightful tale by Robert Louis Stevenson has defined our concept of pirates, perhaps, more than any other. It has it all: buried treasure, the parrot, sea ballads (“Yo-ho-ho, and a bottle of rum!”). It has one of the most memorable characters in all of literature—Long John Silver! No wonder it has endured as a favorite of young and old since its first publication in 1883. Other Authors on Robert Louis Stevenson: “As a storyteller there isn’t his equal.” —Jack London “...that delightful master of delicate and fanciful prose.” —Oscar Wilde “Stevenson is master of a consummate style, and each phrase is finished as in poetry.” —Gerard Manley Hopkins
