There is no reason to be defeated by life issues when there are answers in the word of God. The situation you face right now, the mountain that stands before you, there is a word to remove it. There is no reason why you should stand before a mountain and watch it remaining still and blocking your way.

Your situation is not headline news, someone has dealt with it before. Let's face it, the worst thing is someone else's experience. You too can learn from their experience, and triumph over your situation.

Power Filled Word series is a careful pick of various words spoken by and about God, such words provide insight into how God has dealt with others before and you can trust Him also for your situation right now.

Some were healed, with a word.

Some were raised from the dead, with a word.

Some were defended, with a word.

Find the word for your situation, believe it, speak it, live it!
