The VIVID BEAUTY Manners, Charm and Etiquette Handbook for Women and Girls: Revised 6x9 Teenagers Edition Irene Riter

This guide is in part the classic esteem teachings of The American School of Protocol along with timeless principles of manners, charm and etiquette in the sincere innate desire for beauty on all levels. Thus Vivid Beauty encompasses it all. This delightful handbook is a how-to itemize listing of how to blossom into an extraordinarily charming beautiful woman. Charm cannot exist without good manners—manners that have been made smooth and polished by the continuous practice of kind impulses through the outflow of radiant love and respect. It means educating oneself in society’s cultural customs and acquiring that exterior polish which comes from understanding the rules of exchange for the common good. Confidence in social skills, knowing what to expect and what is expected removes anxiety and gives one the freedom to focus on the matter at hand. We begin with charming manners and then follow up with ways to show the charm of etiquette through social exchange: Charming Conversation Charming Suggestions Charming Introductions Eight Charming Habits of Self Care Manners That Show Your Charm Manners That Shout Your Charm Etiquette That Reveals Your Charm And Table Etiquette Before, During and After Dining This is the perfect gift from mothers to daughters and grandmothers to daughters and granddaughters. Etiquette is a French word meaning “a ticket.” This ticket will gain you entrance into a special world that will set you apart from all the others by expressing caring awareness and respect for self and others. “Charm cannot exist without good manners — meaning by this, not so much manners that precisely follow particular rules, as manners that have been made smooth and polished by the continuous practice of kind impulses.” — Emily Post
